The keel was laid down in February and the hull was launched in June. It is understood that six different types of vessels, varying in size from 8000 tons downward are being built. Many hundreds of such ships will be constructed.

3890 ST. LOUISANS READY FOR SERVICE

Less Than 500 Certified Registrants Needed to Complete City's Quota for New Army.

Names of the men certified and those who were examined yesterday for the national army will be found on page 9 of this edition.

Less than 500 certified registrants are needed to complete St. Louis' quota of 4377 for the new national army; 30 per cent of which is to be mobilized next Wednesday.

The District Board in the Boatmen's Bank Building at noon today had listed the names of 3890 St. Louisans ready for service. Returns were made this morning from the following wards:

Twenty-second, 3; Seventh, 41; Eighteenth, 107 and Sixteenth, 2. Several other wards are examining men today and by next Monday or Tuesday the quota will probably have been completed.

To date the ward boards have granted exemptions to 2466 and reported the failure of 566 to appear for examination.

In the three districts of St. Louis County 262 have been listed as ready for service, 417 have been exempted and 62 have failed to answer the call for examination.

As the work of the district board nears its close the detailed work is piling up heavily. Another room was secured in the Boatmen's Bank Building this morning, giving the board four rooms.

The District Appeals Board today acted on 19 appeals for exemption from army service, 13 of which were allowed and six rejected. The following were exempted:

Henry F. Hottenhorst, 48 Morley place, Webster Groves, given five days to join Battery A.

Paul G. Fox, 3256 S. Grand avenue, allowed six months' exemption on industrial claim.

William Galvin, 4058 Cozans, dependent wife.

Charles S. Davis, 4234A Easton, dependent wife.

J. E. Bennett, 526 Atlanta avenue, Webster Groves, dependent wife.

John B. Theiss, Sappington, Mo., dependent parents.

Fred Klinhart, 4021 Garfield, dependent wife.

H. M. Strachan, Buckingham Hotel, joined medical division of Officers' Reserve Corps.

N. A. Robinson, 4236A Finney, dependent wife.

W. A. Patterson, 4134 Delmar, dependent wife.

Walter Sandler, 3865 Kennerly, dependent wife.

F. M. Sayers, 3819 Cook, dependent wife and child.

H. L. Burrow, 5961 Plymouth, friendly alien.

Those whose exemptions were denied are:

Arnold Dovsky, 3325A Chipewake, rejected by marines and thought he should be rejected in draft.

Sylvester Goldstein, 4245 Easton, industrial.

E. H. Frenkel, 4040 St. Ferdinand, dependents.

T. R. Patterson, 2907A North Newstead, physical.

George Brooks, 363 East Prairie, dependents.

Thomas P. Cavanaugh, 4422 Evans, dependents.

The board today received a telegram from Adjutant-General McCord asking it when certifying names to indicate whether they are white men or negroes. Members of the board said this indicates the men are to be sent to different camps.

Byron F. Rabbitt, a lawyer in the Third National Bank Building, has volunteered his services to the board and he will be used to prepare the certified lists for the Adjutant-General at Jefferson City. L. Ray Carter, one of the members of the board, has added two stenographers to the clerical force at his own expense.

MISS COOMES ARRESTED AFTER A LONG TAXI RIDE

Second Detention in Week for Girl Who Says Highballs Make Her Think She's Rich.

Miss Marie Coomes, 22 years old, of 1527 Washington avenue, who says a few highballs make her think she's rich, was arrested last night for the second time in a week. C. M. Viechler, a taxicab driver, said she and a man used his machine several hours, after which the man disappeared through a saloon. When he demanded his fare Miss Coomes offered to pay it with a check.

A week ago Miss Coomes, who came here from Jacksonville, Ill., was arrested on charge of buying an automobile and paying for it with a worthless check "on the United States Government." She was released on that occasion, when the complainants said they would not prosecute her.

ROOT CONFERS WITH PRESIDENT

Has Been Urging That More Assistance Be Extended to Russia.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—President Wilson again turned his attention to the situation in Russia at a conference today with Elihu Root. Root and other members of the mission to Russia have been pressing the immediate necessity of material as well as moral assistance to the provisional Government and beside the recent $100,000,000 credit other steps already have been taken toward that end.

WILSON'S PROMPT ACTION SURPRISES ALLIED CAPITALS

Some of Entente Governments
Unprepared for Quick Reply to the Pope.

EFFECT ON THE RUSSIANS

President May Have Desired to Impress Moscow Assembly and Check Pacifists.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30. — Even some of the entente Governments were unprepared for the prompt fashion in which the President rejected Pope Benedict's peace proposals. Some of the allied Foreign Offices, accustomed to long, deliberated moves in diplomacy, regarded the exchanges that had been going on between them and their own capitals as barely completed. They had rather expected further discussion of the time for dispatching the proposals. It was realized, however, by the entente representatives in Washington that President Wilson must have had some good and sufficient reason for acting so quickly. Speculation ascribes the motive to a desire to impress favorably the great Russian convention at Moscow while that body still is in a plastic and receptive state. It also was suggested that the President might have wished to anticipate by his remarkable state paper obstructive action by the pacifist elements in and out of Congress in the United States.

No rejoinder from the Vatican is expected here in the immediate future. It is confidently believed by some officials here that the spirit of revolt will develop steadily and rapidly among the people in Germany, bringing nearer the day when they will assert themselves to the point where President Wilson may feel safe in listening to peace overtures in the conviction that they are from the German people themselves and not from the overlord and military despots.

President Wilson realizes the force of the objection that has come from some quarters to what might be regarded as a disposition on his part to impose a form of government on Germany. It can be stated that nothing was further from his thought than such a disposition. He meant just what he said in the note, that the word of the present autocratic rulers of Germany cannot be taken for anything that is to endure unless supported by the will of the German people themselves. As to whether Germany has an imperial or a republican form of government, it is conceded that the remainder of the world has nothing to do. The German-Austrian negotiations, insincere and hollow as they are believed to be on the part of Germany, are viewed officially here as another evidence of the weakening of Germany's aggressive policies. Approval of the President's note is expressed generally at the Capitol by members of all parties.

Probably 10 Days Before Central Powers Answer Pope's Note.
COPENHAGEN, Aug. 30. — It will be 10 days before the central Powers answer the peace note of Pope Benedict, says the Berlin Kreuzzeitung. Negotiations regarding the note between Berlin and Vienna have been completed, the newspaper states, but are still taking place with Turkey. It expresses the view that the central Powers undoubtedly will agree upon a joint reply.

The commission appointed by the German Chancellor to consider a reply to the note had its first session Tuesday, according to the Lokal Anzeiger of Berlin. Chancellor Michaelis presided. The session adjourned until the results of the discussions over the note are available from Constantinople and Sofia.

Pope Hoped to Get Favorable Answer From United States.
ROME, Tuesday, Aug. 28. — The Osservatore Romano, organ of the Vatican, prints a long article embodying a discussion of the objections made to the Pope's peace proposals, from which it would appear evident that the Pontiff hoped to obtain a favorable answer from the United States.

It is intimated by the paper that any step taken by the Pope is persistently misinterpreted and subjected to unfair criticism and that the present proposal is no exception. For instance, it is pointed out, the note has been criticized because the Pope has entered the realm of material things rather than spiritual, when, in fact, previous notes issued by him have fully covered things spiritual.

It adds that the Vatican declares it cannot be accused of favoring the Germans, in the face of frequent denunciations by the Holy Father of the Belgian outrages and the bombardment of open cities. Regarding the Pope's silence on the Balkan problem, it is further pointed out that the Pope cannot offer an immediate concrete solution of a question which has long troubled the statesmen of Europe. The Pope, however, in his note, the paper adds, specifically invites the Powers to meet and arrive at an equitable agreement.

The Osservatore Romano, discussing the moral basis of the note, says that the Holy Father, like President Wilson in his notes, suggests the substitution of the moral force of right for material force, and likewise compares passages in the statements of President Wilson to the papal note regarding the freedom of the high seas as being identical.

FIFTH GETS ANOTHER TYPHOID INOCULATION

Intensive Field Training Schedule of Guardsmen Interrupted for Day.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. NEVADA, Mo., Aug. 30.—The intensive field training schedule for the Fifth Missouri Infantry was interrupted today as a result of the second anti-typhoid prophylaxis inoculation which was received by all the members of the six infantry companies, the machine gun company and the supply company, yesterday. The rest of the regiment received the inoculation today. The most of the men who took the inoculation yesterday were unable to drill this morning because of sore arms. The regiment was converted into a "southpaw" organization. The men assigned to light fatigue duties in camp had to work with their left hands. Even the cooks became porters.

In order to dissipate the after-effect of the inoculation, the soldiers were put through setting-up exercises. The medical officers say the inoculation will distribute the serum quickly and that it will enable a majority of the men to resume the strenuous field drills by tomorrow morning.

A casual summarization of the program for the period of instruction mapped out for the Fifth Regiment indicates that the organization will be thoroughly trained before Jan. 1 for service abroad. Some of the subjects embraced by the schedule are: articles of war, military discipline and courtesy, personal hygiene, interior guard duty, setting up exercises, bayonet exercises, manual of arms, nomenclature of the rifle and pistol, shelter pitching, transportation, whistle and arm signals, semaphore, squad section platoon and company leadership, fire direction and control, field fortification, map sketching, technique of fire scouting, patrolling, outpost duty, camouflage, estimating distance, infantry close order drill in school of the squad, company and battalion, trenching, construction of redoubts and various types of trenches, duties of sentries during gas attacks, night bivouacking, security and information, marching, marksmanship, liaison, use of machine guns and automatic rifles, army regulations, combat problems, use of emergency and field rations, history of the war and reconnoitering.

With 10,000 soldiers in camp Nevada is crowding every evening. The men in khaki and rigid discipline is necessary to maintain order. Last night a strong provost guard was placed throughout the city under Maj. W. D. Stepp of the Fourth Infantry. The men are given short beats, which they patrol in pairs.

Last night two automobiles standing in the business district were taken by soldiers and driven to the camp, where they were abandoned. One of these cars belonged to Sheriff F. O. Davies and the other to a traveling salesman. They were not damaged. There is no shuttle train service between Nevada and the camp and live cars charge 25 cents each way for the three-mile trip.

After nearly a month in the service, hundreds of the soldiers are without money. There has been practically no drunkenness among the men. Federal secret service agents are here and there is little bootlegging.

PRICE IS FIXED ON NEWS PRINT PAPER FOR GOVERNMENT'S USE

President Signs 24 Cents a Pound As Fair Figure for Product to Be Used in Bulletin.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—In an order which newspaper publishers consider an important precedent, President Wilson has fixed a price of 24 cents on news print paper for use in publishing the Government's daily Official Bulletin. The order fixing the price was directed to the International Paper Co., which had declined to furnish news print for the Bulletin at less than 3 cents a pound.

The President's action was taken at the instance of the joint congressional committee on Printing, of which Senator Fletcher is chairman. When the Bulletin began publication the committee sought bids for news print and the cheapest price named was 3 cents. This, the committee decided, was too high, and appealed to the International on patriotic grounds to sell its product to the public printing office at 24 cents. The company complied and later declared increasing production costs compelled them to raise the price to 3 cents.

Senator Fletcher went to the Federal Trade Commission for its cost of production figures and the committee decided the International could sell at 24 cents and still make a fair profit. Attorney-General Gregory held that a supply of paper for the Bulletin was necessary for war purposes.

CHAUFFEUR GOES TO 'KEEP DATE' WITH MAID BUT MEETS POLICE

Girl Had Complained That Man Annoyed Her—He Was No Army Registration Card.

When William Looby, a chauffeur, of 3669 Flad avenue, called at the residence of Joseph C. Henniger, 3807 Russell avenue, last night, to "keep a date" with the maid there he found two policemen awaiting him. They escorted him to a police station on a charge of peace disturbance.

The maid, Miss Bertha Kuebler, had complained that a man had been annoying her by calling her on the telephone and asking her to "make a date." She was told to invite him to the house and policemen were sent there to meet him.

Looby gave his age as 21 when arrested Feb. 10, 1916, on a peace disturbance charge. His sister, Miss Margaret Looby, last night informed the police that he was not quite 24 years old. Looby had no army registration card. He said that he was 33 years old, but was ordered held for the Department of Justice.

Miss Ina Mildred Harding of Pana, Ill., Says She Thought She Had Enough Funds in Bank.
Miss Ina Mildred Harding, who said she was the daughter of a wealthy farmer of Pana, Ill., was arrested at Seventh street and Washington avenue this afternoon while walking with her fiancé, Elmer Sexton of 5603 Page boulevard, a student of the St. Louis University Medical School, after a house detective at the Jefferson Hotel, where Miss Harding registered last night, the checks came back marked "No funds."
Sexton was astonished at his fiancée's arrest and while she was held at the matron's room set out to try to obtain bond for her.

BROKER'S WIFE ACCUSES MAN OF 'FREE PICTURE' SWINDLE
Photograph Enlarging Artist Arrested As He Tries to Cash Woman's Check for $7.
Earl Sacks, 27 years old, of 4401 Vista avenue, a photograph enlarging artist, was arrested this afternoon at the St. Louis Union Bank when he attempted to cash a check for $7 given him by Mrs. William Lanyon of 4440 Lindell boulevard, wife of a grain broker. Mrs. Lanyon had telephoned the bank to stop payment on the check.
The check was made out to the Missouri Art Institute, which Sacks declared was his firm name. Mrs. Lanyon said that last week Sacks solicited a photograph from her which he said was to be enlarged free as an advertisement. When he returned with the picture today, she said, he insisted that she buy a frame for $14. She finally gave him a check for half that amount and then reported him to the Westward Avenue Police Station and asked the bank not to honor the check.

FIRST AMERICAN CAMOUFLERS
WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—For the first American "camouflage" unit, the army Chief of Engineers has issued a call for enlistment of "ingenious young men who are looking for special entertainment in the way of fooling Germans." It is planned to organize a company of camoufleurs largely from among iron and sheet metal workers, sign and scene painters, carpenters, cabinetmakers, stage carpenters, property men, plaster molders and photographers.
"These men will devote their wits to devising artificial means of deceiving enemy observers, particularly aviators," says a War Department announcement, "wherever a machine gun is set up, or a trench is taken and reversed, or a battery of artillery goes into action, or a new road is opened, or a new bridge is built, or a sniper climbs an old building, or an officer creeps into an advanced post to hear and observe."
The literal meaning of camouflage, a French music hall term, is "faking." Applicants are asked to communicate with the Chief of Engineers, War Department.

you snap on your head and tail lights, or dim them, or start your motor—if you're driving a CHEVROLET.

You don't have to get out in the mud, or rain, or dust, and burn your fingers trying to light coal oil or gas lamps with matches; nor grab hold of an iron crank and heave until you can see stars, persuading your motor to get busy.

The CHEVROLET has complete Electrical Equipment—lights and self-starter. It has the famous Valve-in-Head Motor, which not only gives the car unusual smoothness and power, but makes it the most economical in the use of gasoline—because every ounce of power generated is used.

The CHEVROLET has the grace and beauty of a high-priced car, and yet it is the lowest-priced Electrically Equipped Automobile in the world.

Come in and let us show you this car.

1100 PUPILS WILL ATTEND NEW JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

Tuesday Morning to Receive Instructions.

Eleven hundred pupils will be enrolled in the new junior high school next Tuesday in the buildings on Clemens and Union avenues formerly occupied by the Smith-Manual Academy.

The children to be assigned to the new institution will be those who otherwise would have begun their first half year's work at Soldan High School and the seventh and eighth grade pupils of the Arlington, Clark,

Dosier, Emerson, Hamilton and Washington schools who live west of King's highway between Easton avenue and Forest Park.

The pupils thus designated are to report to their old schools Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock to receive instructions.

STOCKHOLM GETS MAXIMUM PRICE OF 49 CENTS ON BACON

Vegetables Are Luxury in Swedish
City—Tailors Advance Prices
60 to 65 Per Cent.

STOCKHOLM, Aug. 30.—The latest American papers reaching here report indignation in various cities at the high prices of certain foodstuffs. Particular complaint is made over the fact that some butchers are demanding 45 cents a pound for bacon. Maximum prices have recently been established for Stockholm for all varieties of pork. The price set for bacon is 49 cents a pound, which is a reduction from the 53 cents formerly demanded.

Vegetables remain a luxury for the people here. Asparagus, now disappearing from the market, never dropped below 53 cents a pound. It was being sold at 80 cents at a time when Berlin dealers were charging 18 cents. Spinach costs 53 cents a pound, string beans 67 cents and green peas 40 cents.

Men's tailors have recently notified of an advance in prices of 60 to 65 per cent. Silk socks, of the grade sold in America at 50 cents a pair cost $1.10 in the Swedish shops, and cotton socks and stockings of the quarter grade cost from 60 cents up to two-for-a-quarter collars are 40 cents apiece.

Apart from foodstuffs and wearing apparel, a most serious phase of the outlook for the coming winter is the question of fuel. For English coal as much as $90 a ton is being asked, and there is little to be had at that price. Hard wood costs $14 a cord. Gas may be used only for cooking.

TWELFTH REGIMENT OF ENGINEERS IS NOW IN FRANCE

Force Composed Largely of St. Louisians Will Assist in Railroad Operation.

TRIP WAS UNEVENTFUL

Letter Says Men Slept in Their Clothes When Convey Arrived a Day Late.

The Twelfth Regiment, United States Engineers, is now in France, where its members, largely St. Louis railroad employees, will be engaged in the operation of French military railroads.

Cablegrams received by relatives of some of the men of the regiment brought the news of the arrival in France. These messages came about the same time as cards, written by some of the engineers on their arrival at a camp in England. Their stay at the camp was comparatively short, and the Thirteenth Engineers, recruited in Chicago, was at the camp with them.

A card received yesterday by Mrs. L. W. Lacy of Webster Groves from her son, Sgt. Douglas Lacy of C Company, Twelfth Engineers, was mailed from the camp in England. It said that the men were comfortably situated, and that they expected to take part, in a day or two, in a big parade in London, which the King witnessed.

Of the voyage to England, Lacy wrote, "Our trip was very pleasant and uneventful rumors to the contrary notwithstanding." This was taken as meaning that no serious attack by submarines was experienced.

Another letter received by a St. Louisian from an officer of the regiment said that the convey, sent out to escort the engineers' ship to a British port, was a day late and that the men under orders, slept in their clothes on the night before the convey appeared.

The Twelfth Engineers were recruited here in June and July, and left July 25 for an Atlantic port. Col. Curtis J. Townsend is Colonel of the Twelfth, and Majors John A. Laird and Frank G. Jonah are staff officers.

THE AMERIKA COMMENTS ON PRESIDENT'S REPLY TO POPE

Compares Executive's Attitude Toward Germany With One He Assumed Toward Huerta.

The Amerika, German language daily, in an editorial this morning commented on President Wilson's reply to the Pope's peace proposals, and compared his attitude toward the German Government with that which he assumed toward Huerta when the latter ruled Mexico.

The editorial says a large part of the German people do not wish to know about any proposals coming from the enemy's camp, and that such proposals are to them like the proverbial "Greeks bearing gifts." The Germans believe the war was forced on them, the article says, and have as many proofs to offer in support of their view as the allies have. "And here," the editorial says, "lies the hardest problem of the war—the vanquishing of the idea that the enemy must acknowledge he was morally in the wrong. Mr. Wilson tries to shift the guilt from the German people to their Government. But the people proclaim their solidarity with the Government. Only by force can change be effected in the relation. Can this be the President's intention? That is the question which he leaves unanswered. It will be, for the German people, the great stumbling block. It must be put out of the way before peace can come."

TWO MEN AND TWO WOMEN ARRESTED; INDICTMENT FOUND

Copy of True Bill Returned in Belleville Safe Robbery Case Recovered in Their Room.

The copy of an indictment, such as is furnished defendants, charging William Kehoe, Terry Orrell, John Meyers, Thomas Kelly and James Rowe, St. Louisans, with safe robbery in Belleville, was found in a room at 3037 Washington avenue, last night, following the arrest there of two men and two women. The document, with two pistols, stamped property of the U. S. A., was wrapped in a bed sheet. The bundle also contained an army registration card issued to William Schott of the Tenth Precinct of the First Ward.

The persons arrested were John Murray, a machinist, 37 years old, and his wife, Mrs. Cora Murray, 23, who engaged the room where the raid was made; David Robinson, 26 years old, of 4118 Bulwer avenue, and Miss Marie Brewington, 25, of 2503 Chouteau avenue. They denied having any connection with the bundle.

The arrest followed a "tip" to the police that Murray and Robinson had been absconding themselves from the Washington avenue house at night and remaining in the room during the day. They usually rode about in an automobile at night, the police were told.

The safe robbery was committed several months ago. The men named in the indictment were arrested in East St. Louis and released on bond. The prisoners were ordered held pending an investigation by Federal secret service agents.

40 Kansas City Policemen Fined.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 30.—Forty city police officers, alleged to have declared they would not ride as guards on street cars manned by imported strikebreakers during the recent street car strike here, were dismissed by the Board of Police Commissioners.

Representatives of 34 labor unions were present at the meeting and protested against the board's action.

Says His Blood Is Purer English
Than Is George's and He Is Proud of It.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—Senator Stone of Missouri, chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, speaking in the Senate yesterday afternoon in answer to recent newspaper attacks made upon him, declared that he had not, at any time, had any intention of presenting a peace resolution to the Senate. He asserted that newspapers throughout the country, following his presentation to the Senate of a peace petition prepared by the American Union against militarism, had assumed that he intended to offer a peace resolution, and some had charged that he had actually done so, and thereupon proceeded to denounce him as a slacker, a traitor, a German sympathizer and a German spy.

Senator Stone had the clerk read the petition of the American Union against militarism, and his own remarks upon introducing it, in which he said that he desired to make some observations respecting the communication at an early date. His speech contained about 800 words.

Points in His Defense.
The principal points in Senator Stone's defense of his own course in the Senate were:

That it was his belief that Lord Northcliffe, owner of the London Times, who is on a tour of the United States, had in some way influenced American editors to pillory representatives in Congress who were audacious enough to do things not meeting with his approval.

That he was opposed to the United States becoming a belligerent in the war, and subsequent events had convinced him that he was right, but that, since the declaration of war, he had supported every war measure presented by the administration.

He denied that there was anything improper in his efforts to influence German-Americans of Missouri to vote the Democratic ticket, and asserted that he had not been fool enough to count the German vote by playing the contemptible game of small politics in dealing with the most momentous questions that ever confronted the nation.

As proof that he had attempted no retaliation upon the newspapers, he cited his record in the Finance Committee, where he opposed the zone rate of newspaper postage approved by the House, and also opposed a high rate of taxation on newspaper incomes. He declared that he had not taken this stand to court the favor of newspapers, but solely from the standpoint of right and justice. He defended Senator Reed's stand on the Hoover food control bill.

"During the earlier weeks of this month of August, I was grossly assailed and insulted by a number of metropolitan journals somewhat widely scattered over the country, including several in my own State," Senator Stone said.

"These intemperate editors assume that I intended to do things and say things that I did not intend to do or say, some of them assumed, even asserted, that I intended to offer a resolution, or series of resolutions, outlining and proposing a definite and specific terms of peace, even to the extent of advising the President what he should do in the premises. Some went even so far as to say I had actually proposed such a resolution. Now, all that was purely imaginary. I never at any time had any thought of doing that."

"These newspapers built their own man of straw to knock down. Because of what I did or they said I did, but which I did not do, some of these editors have denounced me in libelous terms, and put their artists to the task of caricaturing me in the most offensive form. Merely because I presented this communication just read in your hearing, remarking only that I had in mind to offer a resolution, they have said that I intended to say something about it, epithets and cartoons have been employed to put me before the readers of these publications as a slacker—I am using the terms of these editorials—a traitor, a German sympathizer and even as a German spy."

"Sinister Influence."
"Mr. President, seriously, is there not some sinister influence behind this sort of thing?"
Speaking of Lord Northcliffe's visit to the United States, Senator Stone said he believed the English editor had come here to influence American editors and that he appeared to have been very successful.

"Can it be," he asked, "that a Senator or Representative in Congress, or a public man in any position, is in daily danger of being pilloried before the American people whenever he is audacious enough to do or say anything that does not pass with the exacting approval of my Lord Northcliffe's exacting censorship?"

"I will not comment to any great extent upon this most recent storm of scurrility which has beaten upon me—a storm started out of the depths of my grave offense in presuming to present a peace petition to the Senate. If I am correctly informed, which I believe, I am sure some of the editors who have indulged in these scandalous denunciations of me are unnaturalized residents of the United States, who owe allegiance to King George V. Such men, instead of serving their country on the battle front, seek the hospitality of the United States and abuse it by vilifying American public officials who do not happen in all respects to accord with their views and purposes. Perhaps my Lord Northcliffe and others of his caste believe that these foreign editors so working here do better service in this way—that is to say, in striving to control American public opinion—than they could do in shooting their armed enemies along the trench lines. They are employed to fire fusillades of a different kind.

Stone's Americanism.
"Mr. President, I am not required. It is not incumbent upon me, to defend my loyalty or Americanism. I am to the manor born. The great fundamental principles of democracy taught by George Washington, Thomas Jefferson and their coadjutors, were born in me. That is an inseparable part of my life. My forebears came to the American colonies long before the revolution and during the perilous days of that desperate fight for liberty they were patriots, not Tories."

"Some of these editors charge me with being a German sympathizer and abettor. This charge is too ludicrous for me specially to deny. I have not a drop of German blood in my being except, perhaps, such traces of it as is common to the composite English race. The blood pulsing in my heart is purer English by far than that which runs through the veins of George V, who now rules by divine right as King of Great Britain, Ireland and the Dominions beyond the seas, and as Emperor of India. My blood is purer English than his. I am proud of my English blood."

"I would willingly go to war, even into a world war, to preserve the civilization of the English-speaking peoples of the world, what I may call our Anglo-Saxon civilization, if for a moment I believed that the civilization was imperiled. But when men tell you, as they do daily, that the civilization is imperiled, necessarily imperiled, even in England, to say nothing of the United States, by this greatest war, they tell us something which I regard as so pure, so insane, if not insane, so utterly impossible, that I cannot characterize it in parliamentary terms. I speak not now of the danger of possible backslings springing from the outrageous grasp of any nation, English or American. My thought for the moment is fixed only on the possibility of a real danger to the civilization of our people, such a danger as we would be compelled to meet with bloody resistance. To my thinking all this talk to the effect that we are now confronting such a danger is just talk indulged in for ulterior purposes. It hath too much of the Northcliffe twang. Sir, it is an old story in statecraft that ambitious builders of great programs say things to induce the more simple, the more trustful and unsuspecting to do other things the wiser ones wish them to do."

In answer to the accusation that he had been influenced in his course in the Senate by a desire to win the German vote in Missouri, he said that he had made efforts to persuade the German-Americans to vote the Democratic ticket, but had not been very successful, and 70 to 80 per cent of the Germans always voted the Republican ticket. He declared that he agreed with President Wilson that the great majority of German-Americans were loyal citizens.

"I need not say to the metropolitan papers of Missouri—I say especially those of Missouri—that it is impossible of them to extend toward me a menacing hand that would carry dread to my heart. The editors of these papers in Missouri know that whatever editors in other sections of the country may think about it, I indulge in no idle boasting. I throw no gage of battle or defiance, but I do say, with some sense of pride, that the people of Missouri know that in my long public service I have never feared or hesitated to say or do what I believed to be right. And they also know that bulldozing tactics of great newspapers have weighed as a feather with me."

Not an Obstructionist.
"Some of these editors also accuse me of being an obstructionist. They charge that I am generally found obstinately opposing what they call the President's war measures. This, Senators, you know is untrue. I did oppose the program suddenly projected before us to enter the United States into a belligerent into the European war. I gave my reasons for that position, and it is not necessary to repeat them farther than to say that every day I live confirms me in the wisdom of the position I assumed and under the circumstances."

"But when the Congress, which under the Constitution is the war-making power, declared for war I stated from my place on this floor that, while I could not change my convictions, I would surrender to the will and judgment of my Government and that henceforth I would support as far as I could with reasonable respect to my oath of office and the responsibilities of my position, all such measures as the President and his advisers in Congress and the Cabinet deemed necessary to the successful prosecution of the war in which they had involved us. That pledge I have kept. I challenge any man to disprove the absolute accuracy of this statement."

Buy Now and Save Money On a Hudson Super-Six

Over 50 makes have already advanced in price.
Hudsons, too, must cost more.

Nearly every make of car, except the Hudson, has lately increased in price.

Cars that sold at $1200 and $1400 now cost about as much as a Super-Six. Since January, 51 makers of automobiles have announced price increases amounting to $100 to $700.

The necessity of buying materials on today's market has forced these increases.

Steel costs five times as much as it did at the beginning of the war. Cotton, rubber—all items that enter into the manufacture of an automobile—now cost more than ever before.

Hudsons will cost more when the present stock of materials, bought last year at lower prices, is exhausted.

There is no way of avoiding it. The price advantage that other cars once held no longer exists.

Hudson has been the most wanted car, regardless of price. It will be more popular than ever now that cheaper cars have advanced in price.

We know the number of cars from present material supplies that we are to get. At the rate of present sales present prices can not be continued long. Some models will be advanced in price within one month.

Now is the time to get a Hudson Super-Six. Have its use the remainder of the Summer and throughout the Fall. Save the money that delay will necessitate your paying for a Hudson.

For a Fair Street
Railway Settlement

Lower Taxes Mean Better Street Car Service

The people of St. Louis want more street car service. They want car line extensions. They want rapid transit lines and subways.

The owners of the property want and should have some return on their investment. They have had none since 1910.

Since 1910 not a penny of street railway earnings has been paid to capital, except interest on bonded debt. The interest payments of $2,550,000 have each year been $500,000 less than the 8% fair return usually recognized by State Public Service Commissions on even the incomplete $38,000,000 valuation placed on the property by the St. Louis Public Service Commission in 1911. Interest payments have averaged $1,000,000 a year less than the suggested 6% return on the $60,000,000 value established by the City's consulting engineer in 1917.

Except bond interest, the Company's entire earnings for seven years past have been paid out for increased wages, for taxes and for extending and improving the service. The public has got it all. The owners have received nothing.

From July 1, 1910, to June 30, 1917, the Company put $19,509,748, 22% of its gross earnings for those years, into plant maintenance, renewals and new construction, and did not pay a dollar of dividends to its owners.

If public sentiment approves, the City Government will apparently consent to reduce its excessive taxation of street railway earnings—provided that what the City foregoes shall be used in these ways:

First, To give more and better service, which includes needed wage increases for street railway employees.

Either of the settlements proposed by the City Government would substitute sensible and helpful co-operation between City and Company for the long and costly warfare in which they have engaged over this issue of excessive taxation. Either would remove the near danger of a receivership, with probable loss or serious reduction of the free transfer privilege now enjoyed by the public.

THE POST-DISPATCH PLATFORM

I know that my retirement will make no difference in its cardinal principles, that it will always fight for progress and reform, never tolerate injustice or corruption, always fight against all parties, never belong to any party, always oppose privileged classes and public plunderers, never lack sympathy with the poor, always remain devoted to the public welfare, never be swayed by merely printing news, always be drastically independent, never be afraid to attack wrong, whether by predatory plutocracy or predatory poverty.

JOSEPH PULITZER

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

Flaws in the Compromise Plan.
To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

There are doubtless many defects in the United Railway ordinances now pending before the Board of Aldermen of the city, from the standpoint of the people's interests, but I respectfully call your earnest attention to several especially vicious provisions, which, in my judgment, good citizens should take immediate action to prevent being incorporated into the city laws for the next 50 years.

Joint Committees or Boards or Control are created, which practically direct the operations of the company and have complete supervision of all betterments and extensions. These boards are made agents of the company, not the city. They are given enormous power and influence over many thousands of votes in the primaries and elections. There are to be two members only, one appointed by the company, the other by the Director of Public Utilities. Only in event of disagreement, can a third member be appointed.

Suppose a city administration and company management work together. In return for company support of the administration, suppose the company is enabled to nominate and elect court judges of its own selection. Think of it. If you have disputes with your employers or employer, who arbitrates? Company Judges. Should you or yours sue the company for injuries or damages, who presides? Company Judges. Do you dare create such a condition of public affairs?

But that is not all. The ordinances as submitted give a complete monopoly of city streets to the company. No other company, city or interurban, can compete with the United. There are provisions which pretend to protect the city, but they are a trick and a cheat. For instance, it is provided that interurban cars may use "United tracks—not streets. But United tracks are two inches wider than any standard or interurban gauge. How then can any outside line come to St. Louis?

There is absolutely no provision for a Municipal loop, although such has been promised by all candidates. For such a loop, it is necessary that the company surrender Seventh street and part of other streets. But not one word is there to that effect.

The so-called Free Bridge is to be made useless and eight millions and more of the people's money is to be frittered away, if these ordinances pass. It is suggested that the Terminal tunnel might be used. That is for future discussion and there is hardly a possibility of its adoption. But in the meantime? On the mere chance of a future deal with the Terminal, the twin of the United, shall a street monopoly now be granted?

The valuation at which the company may be purchased, sixty million of dollars, is such a large sum there is no possibility of the city ever making such purchase and it is manifest no private corporation could again be organized to take it over. So the apparent promise of city ownership is altogether a dream.

Litigation is now pending between the city and the company in the Supreme Court, touching the validity of the present company franchise, extending to the year 1948. Why the haste in now asking for a 50-year franchise? Is it to get some advantage in such litigation? There is talk that this matter is brought up at this time as the result of a political deal in the present campaign. Be that as it may the fact there is much talk proves there is always danger in a city and company co-partnership.

But men, you must act now. Take no chances that the Board of Aldermen are hypnotized or deceived. Show your opposition by strong resolutions and send copies thereof to the board. Bring personal pressure upon members of the board. Do not for your own sake and that of your children allow this company to monopolize the courts, the streets and the politics of our beloved city.

JOS. MCCOY.

Why Not Try the Zone Guard?
To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

As there may be additional calls to officers' reserve, etc., I think it might be advisable to establish a night class in preliminary drills, etc. I know many young men beyond the draft age, who would willingly devote one or two nights a week to this drill and many of them would make excellent subordinate officers, but who at the present time cannot volunteer for various reasons.

If the cause needs them later they will have capable men who have had preliminary military training.

Tours for the establishment for such a class.

Feeney's Political Career.
Feeney wants a "brave" army. These men, who will be in the army, are the same men who were in the army in 1914.

STONE AS A MENACE.

The test of Senator Stone's defense in the Senate against newspaper criticism as well as of the criticism itself is the Senator's actual attitude towards the war and the questions arising from the war.

Tried by this test, ample material for which is offered in the Senator's defense speech, Stone deserves all the legitimate criticism and condemnation that has been directed to him. His own testimony is conclusive of his essential disloyalty to the country in the war and his pro-Kaiser sympathies.

Justifying his opposition to our entrance into the war at the time that war was declared, he asserts that subsequent events confirm him "in the wisdom of that action."

On the day after the President's superb note to the Pope receding the causes that forced us into war and indicting the Kaiser's Government as a menace to civilization and to the rights, liberties and peace of all nations—indorsed even by Senator Stone's German-language newspaper admirers—the Senator hoots at the statement. On this point he says:

But when men tell you, as they do daily, that the civilization is imperiled, necessarily imperiled, even in England, to say nothing of the United States, by this wretched war, they tell us something which I regard as so perilous, so insane, if not insane, so utterly impossible, that I cannot characterize it in parliamentary terms. I speak not now of the danger of possible backsets springing from the outrageous grasp of any nation, English or Teuton. My thought for the moment is fixed only on the possibility of a real danger to the civilization of our people, such a danger as we would be compelled to meet with bloody resistance. To my thinking all this talk to the effect that we are now confronting such a danger is just talk indulged in for ulterior purposes. It has too much of the Northcliffe twang. Sir, it is an old story in statecraft that ambitious builders of great programs say things to induce the more simple, the more trustful and unsuspecting to do other things the wiser ones wish them to do.

In another utterance he charges that Lord Northcliffe exercises a direct control and censorship of American newspaper opinion in the interest of England.

In short, all who hold that the war is justified and that Germany's military autocracy is a menace to America and to free civilization—the newspapers, the President, the Cabinet, the majority of Congress and the mass of the American people—are dupes or tools of England. He tries to inject into the public mind the foul suggestion that the war was undertaken and is being maintained by reason of British influence. In the interest of Britain. England duped or bribed us into war and England supplies the justifying statements. What could be baser, more contemptible and more inimical to the honor and vital interests of the country?

Whether through a fatally warped or debased conscience, or through befuddled judgment—we do not pretend to decide—the Senator in his defense emphasizes his own untrustworthiness. He confirms our view that as a Senator, and particularly as a member of the Foreign Relations Committee, he is a menace to the nation. How long will the Senate honor and trust a copperhead? How long will the Missouri Democracy stand for Senator Stone's disgraceful misrepresentation of the party and the State?

CO-OPERATING AGAINST INJUSTICE.
A retail coal dealer complains that it is unjust to the trade for two North American Co. subsidiaries to obtain coal at the mines and sell it to their employees at cost.

Such a complaint reveals almost as much assurance as that exposed by the Belleville coal operator, who admitted that coal prices are fixed on the principle of "get all you can." When the coal men themselves recognize no other law of price-fixing but the get-all-you-can law, what injustice is involved in employers co-operating with their employees to introduce another basis in price-fixing?

It is so far from being unjust as to apply a rational and effective method of combating outrageous and insolent injustice.

TWELVE MONTHS OF HINDENBURG.
The London Times' military critic seems to have made out a case against Von Hindenburg. Heralded as the one man in whom the German people reposed the utmost confidence, he became Generalissimo one year ago. Outside of the defeat of the Rumanians he has won no important battle since that time. On the contrary, he has suffered defeat after defeat at the hands of the British and French, whose persistent hammering at the western line has shaken the morale of his soldiers and placed them completely upon the defensive.

The probabilities are that Hindenburg has accomplished all that was humanly possible in the circumstances. But the rest of the world feared—and Germany hoped—that he would accomplish more than mere possibilities. He was to be a superman who was to shrivel the allied lines with Jovian thunderbolts. He was to be the master genius who would see the clearest and quickest path to victory. His commission was broad—the Kaiser had said to him merely: "Win this war for me!" And his powers were commensurate. And yet he has failed.

Germany's military situation today is considerably worse than it was when Hindenburg took command. His field armies have been cruelly mauled and his reserves are all but exhausted—boys and old men have been called upon to replace the waning man power. In France and Flanders an enemy outnumbering him in men and outwitting him in mental has beaten him in every important test of strength.

In the East he has missed a golden opportunity to profit by the demoralization in Russia and destroy the Russian armies. Even the Rumanian army succeeded in withdrawing itself safely from his clutches and is reorganized, ready to take part in approaching campaigns. Most important of all, Hindenburg, through his obstinate and blind insistence upon submarine ruthlessness, is largely responsible for the entrance into the war of America, with her millions of men and her billions of wealth.

A year ago he was proclaimed an "idol" of the German people. But an idol is expected not only to work miracles, but also to avert disasters. Hindenburg has done neither the one nor the other. It will be surprising if he retains the supreme command for another year.

AMERICA'S WAR AIMS.

We are fortunate in the cause and the leadership which for the first time have brought the United States into a war on the continent of Europe and put us into European affairs in a way to affect profoundly European politics and national relationships.

We have not sought war in Europe. We have not voluntarily and for selfish purposes become entangled with European affairs. We have not dipped into European politics to set up one nation and pull down another for our own advantage. We have been forced into the European war to defend our dearest rights, to defend American lives and property and to ward off a blow aimed at the heart of the republic.

On the other hand, in entering the European war we are not merely fighting for American rights and American security. Our purpose is larger. It embraces in its scope an inestimable service to Europe in particular and to mankind in general.

President Wilson has so handled the cause of America against the German autocracy that involved in our fight for justice and freedom for America is a greater fight for justice and freedom for all nations. We have championed the cause of democracy, not alone outside of but within Germany, against a despotic and unscrupulous autocracy, which menaces the peace, security and liberty of all the civilized world. We are fighting for democracy and the safety of democratic institutions everywhere. We are fighting for the establishment of American principles of justice and freedom and American ideals of national independence and self-government.

We have erected the torch of liberty in Europe for the enlightenment of its peoples. We are fighting to break the last remnant of the bonds of despotism that have subjected Europe to the will of imperial conquerors and oppressors, whose power and ambition menaces all nations. We are fighting to crush despotism that men and nations may be free and secure in the right to work out their own destinies.

THE SURRENDER TO ARGENTINA.
In Argentina's case, Germany "willingly" acknowledges the dictates of international law and will endeavor to obey them.

But it is not done so very "willingly." The concession is made only after many protests and at the end of long negotiations. At one time Germany offered to meet the Argentina demand provided Argentina endeavored to keep her flag out of the restricted zone.

The South American republic having refused this stipulation—just as we refused the impudent stipulation that our sea rights should be reduced to the dispatch of one ship a week, painted with certain designated stripes, to the port of Falkland—Germany yields the full demand.

How many disquieting things in increased burden of enemy pressure Germany might have avoided, how many calls for new national sacrifices she might have escaped, what multiplied causes of domestic dissatisfaction and ominous indications of ultimate and ruinous defeat she might have prevented, had she granted to the United States that which she now grants to Argentina!

But six months ago she said she could make in our case no exception to her general policy of criminal destruction of neutral as well as belligerent trading fleets. Why does she give to the one republic what she had fatuously refused to the other?

To be sure, Germany also made us fair promises, some of them clothed in language similar to the promise given Argentina. But that was before she had definitely committed herself to her policy of piracy. It was before Hindenburg had announced that "our military situation is such we can accept all the consequences which unrestricted submarine war will bring!"

But it seems now that she does not accept all those consequences—at least those affecting her relations with our neighbor of the South. She having lowered the black flag to Argentina and made an exception in her case and secretly, doubtless, in the case of Spain also—what will the other neutrals do?

Argentina, with little at stake in the way of merchant fleets, has taken a spirited and self-respecting course in striking contrast with the supineness under German outrage of such nations as Norway, Sweden and Holland, whose citizens have been subjected to tremendous losses in vessel property.

THE SPIRIT OF CO-OPERATION.

The thing that will increase America's efficiency in the world war and prepare it for a great part in the peace that is to come is the remarkable spirit of co-operation and co-ordination that has been developed in the United States in the past six months. Institutions and individuals at a great sacrifice of material advantage have placed themselves freely at the disposal of Washington, asking only that they be permitted to serve their country in its hour of trial.

An excellent example of this is shown in the recent announcement of the faculty of Washington University. This institution, which has already provided an ambulance corps for France and numerous officers in the engineering and other departments of the United States Service now feels that its stay-at-homes should be of aid to the Government.

Thus the faculty has placed at the disposal of all manufacturing concerns engaged in work for America's army the free use of the university's experimental laboratories and the scientific knowledge stored up in the minds of its technical teaching staff. The university offers to put its staff to work to answer any knotty questions that might arise in the minds of chemists or engineers engaged on Government contracts. It will work out solutions and make tests.

In addition the university offers to give night courses in technical subjects to the employees of plants engaged in Government work at a nominal fee.

JUST A MINUTE

Written for the POST-DISPATCH by Clark McAdams

HIS DARKEST HOUR.

This American poet and Oriental explorer is at present one of the most popular poets in the London and Paris magazines because of his interpretations of various psychologic experiences of the war. France's leading review, "La Nouvelle Revue," calls his work "intense poetry."

HOW I have loved thee, Earth! scenes that I leave—
Gardens of musing walled in laurel white;
Eve's dovers, whence the vesper-bird would grieve
In plaintive numbers for the waning light
And pour its swelling heart of love abroad;
Soft winding valleys of deep, deep grass,
Graced o'er by sleek and slowly wandering kine;
Old roads, with golden-rod
Lined festive, as though Orient Kings might pass.
Now all is lost—the song, the fruit, sun and wine.

The matin bird, that hurried his clear flute,
The swift unfolding glories of the day
To graze, has now departed or is mute;
The feathery birches of the woodland sway,
Whose leaves like to a thousand lamps of light
Twinkled across the waning sun, are bare;
The Hebe-blue of life is lost; the smile
Of hope from my dim sight
Passes away; the hooded face of Prayer
Lingers alone o'er Earth's cold shrine awhile.
And thou hast ta'en my flowers, conspiring Death!

That Love and I had chosen for our speech;
Roses for ardor, with a passioned breath;
Lilies for Love's own soul; and unto each
Sweet blossom we had given qualities:
Paeonies for innocence, because their eyes
Are always open wide; daisies for grace;
Poppies for that rich blue,
That trust of Love, whose only words are sighs;
All thou hast ta'en, and veiled too o'er Love's face!

So seems it now, tried soul! but from Death's seed
Rises Spring; translated Love; a hero's crown;
God's face indeed!

JOHN STUART THOMPSON.

From Windsor Magazine, London.

A reader of one of our local contemporaries wants folk for President. Mentioning it when it sounds ridiculous is what keeps the average man in this country from ever being President.

The farmers of North Dakota think $3 should be the minimum for wheat. Two-dollar wheat probably means that they will have to go back to Ford.

Persons who have mixed it with Mr. Daniels and gotten their eyes blacked seem to have forgotten that

JAPAN AND THE EAST.

THE proper light in which to view Japan's ambition to be cock of the walk in the East is first to think of our own Monroe Doctrine. What Japan is doing doesn't seem half so terrible when one looks at it in that way. The Monroe Doctrine is a pretty bumptious piece of business. If it is now and always has been essential to our safety, perhaps the same thing may be said for the Japanese ambition to say who shall share control with her in the Pacific. Probably Japan knows best what is good for her, and if she sticks out for it she is only doing what we have done upon our own hemisphere. This is not always pleasant, but it is at least as fair as what we are doing over here. Somebody said something a long time ago about people in glass houses not throwing stones, and if we are not the occupants of such a structure in this particular matter, then where do we live? If China or some other power arises over there to dispute the influence of Japan, that is, or seems to be, the business of Asia. Until then it looks as if the East were pretty much Japan's business.

BUCOLIC HUMOR.

Two natives were standing outside a dance hall, colloquy:
"How is the dance goin' on?"
"Nothin' doin'." Nary girl there."
A man was killed at a dance in the southern part of Missouri recently because he refused to pay 60 cents due the fiddler. He will have a long time to reflect over the axiom that those who dance must pay the violinist.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES

As we have no information during the week, impossible to answer queries by mail or telephone.

BEAUTY CULTURE.

X. X. X.—We do not recall the exact formula. See Answers July 6 and 7. For hair, use white vasoline, 1 dram sulphur, 1 ounce of the 2 and apply.

NONA.—We have no slips for mailing, no information bureau to write letters, no mailing, falling hair: When the hair of the hair are dead there can be no restoration. If there were only one remedy for falling hair, a universal remedy should be proposed. In every case shampooing should be omitted except when the scalp is absolutely demands it. Common salt dissolved into the scalp two or three times a week has arrested falling hair, and treatment is indicated by hair specialists. Yet there are persons with whom salt does not agree, its stimulation causing itching and irritation. Massaging with cold sage or tea is worth trying. The hair should be washed by several sponges with cold water. In their luxurious hair, root tea, 1 pound of the root tea, 1 ounce of water, boiled down to one pint, applied daily to the scalp. A head which seems only lately fully realized is that the hair to be beautiful and vigorous must have air and sunlight. Massage has many times worked wonders.

HOUSEHOLD HELPS.

KATHMAR.—Citrus for cleaning, use sharp knife cut into small pieces. M. V. H.—Canned greens: Greens in the following manner are delicious. Pick over and wash Swiss chard or spinach. Cook in boiling salt water until tender. Drain. Pack closely in glass jars and cover with boiling weak vinegar. Seal tightly and wrap each can in paper to exclude light and put away in cellar or cool place.

HOUSEWIFE.—Piece of horseradish jar of pickles will keep vinegar from losing its pickles firm in the first week after you put on to freshen them better. When cold, change the water, using salt after the first time.

LAW POINTS.

ANXIOUS.—Tax on furniture of $100 real value, $7.05.

KLEB.—Consult a lawyer or talk with Prosecuting Attorney, Municipal Court.

FUELED.—Court does not require mother in divorce suit to ask custody of her child. She does as she pleases about that. C. R. C.—Landlord may sue for rent due a year ago. In Illinois $15 weekly of married man's pay is exempt from garnishment; $400 worth of household goods is exempt from seizure for debt; also home stand valued at $1000.

U. S.—Write War Department.

S. A. G.—Try writing War Department.

MARY.—He should report to the War Board, though he has moved from the ward.

FIMBLE.—Give the Board proof, including physician's certificate, that the accident happened.

Maxwelton Jockies Made a Big Clean-Up--Removing the Mud After the Races

LITTLE COTTAGE WINS FIRST RACE AT MAXWELTON

County Court, Favorite, Fails to Place in the Opening Event.

TRACK IS AGAIN SLOW

Key Mar, a 15 to 1 Shot, Captures Second Event On Program.

MAXWELTON, Aug. 30.—Despite the sun, the track was in little better condition today for the second day of the racing meet. The going will be heavy again and the time slow.

Right off the reel, an outsider came in for first money when Dunkinor rode Little Cottage, 3 to 1 shot, across the wire ahead of the field. County Court, whom the bookies had made a 7 to 5 favorite, failed to place. The sun was bright by this time and the track showed signs of drying out.

Key Mar, a 15 to 1 shot, Eddie Taplin in the saddle, made a run-away of the second event, winning by a length. He was off at the jump and was never headed. As usual the favorite, Rubison, failed to place.

First race, claiming, $400, 3-year-olds, six furlongs—Little Cottage 109 1/2 (Dunkinor), 3-1, even, 1-2, 1-3, 1-4, 1-5, 1-6, 1-7, 1-8, 1-9, 1-10, 1-11, 1-12, 1-13, 1-14, 1-15, 1-16, 1-17, 1-18, 1-19, NEW YORK STOCKS AND BONDS. NEW YORK STOCKS AND BONDS. NEW YORK STOCKS AND BONDS.

REPORTED DAILY FOR THE POST-DISPATCH BY G. H. WALKER & CO. 107 NORTH FOURTH STREET.

Light Receipts and Good Spot Demand Are Main Bull Factors.

Corn opened at a small fractional advance in the local grain market today, but quickly eased off to a shade under Wednesday's close, and during the early trading the range was narrow and speculation listless.

The weekly Government weather report said: average temperatures were much below normal in the central and lake regions.

The condition of corn, however, has improved, and the outlook for the early recovery of the crop from the drought is more optimistic.

Northwest corn is in good demand, and the outlook for the early recovery of the crop from the drought is more optimistic.

Chicago, Aug. 30.—There was a firm undertone in the corn market today, but the market was not as active as it was on Wednesday.

Insulted.
IT was their honeymoon trip to London and the first time they had ever been out of Lancashire. As they waited on the platform at St. Pancras for the guard to bundle their boxes out of the van the young bride and bridegroom were manifestly embarrassed.
Then an inside porter came up and asked:
"Can I look after yer baggage for yer, mister?"
The red blood mounted to the young bride's cheeks and, turning to her hubby, she demanded:
"Well, well, well! If yer ain't a-goin' to thrash him for refairin' to me like that yere no man for ye!" - Toronto Globe.

A Philosopher.
A WELL-KNOWN athlete says that on entering a Turkish bath one night he found a stranger struggling in the swimming pool. There was nobody near, and the man was evidently unable to swim, having jumped in probably without ascertaining whether the water would be above his head.
The athlete swam to the assistance of the struggling man. Grasping him by the hair, he towed him to the side of the tank and assisted him to hang on until he recovered his breath.
What were the first words uttered by the rescued one? Did he stammer out thanks to his human preserver? No. The human mind is a curious affair. As the half-drowned man struggled back to consciousness, memories of an old jest seemed to flit through his brain, for he said:

"Lucky for me I wasn't bald-headed!" - Tilt-Bits.
